RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

Registration 2016 - 2017 Religious Education Program

We hope you are all enjoying these summer months with your families. As you all know, the preparation for the 2016-17 Religious Ed year is currently underway. Therefore, we are sending this reminder to those who have not registered as of yet. We ask that you please do so as soon as possible.

Please note that if your family has not re-registered by the end of August, we cannot guarantee that your child will be on the list for Opening Day.

Please remember that if your family is experiencing a financial hardship, come and either speak with us or write us a letter when you re-register, so that we may make arrangements. No child will ever be kept from Religious Education due to a family's inability to pay.

An Urgent Request from Sr. Rose

At the beginning of the summer, (July 4th weekend) I came to our parish family inviting everyone to consider joining us in our ministry of helping parents form their children in the Faith through the Religious Education Program. Thank you to those adults and teens who responded. Unfortunately, (now approaching Labor Day) & I need to revisit you again as we are still seriously in need of Catechists.

With only a few weeks away from our opening classes in mid-September almost all of our grade levels have some empty Catechist spaces. We cannot begin these levels unless we have Catechists to fill those spaces. The role of Catechist does not require one to be a theologian but does require some orientation and preparation. We can help you with this!! If you are a practicing Catholic, in a sacramental marriage, have a basic knowledge of your Faith and want to help our young people come to know Jesus and His love for them, call us today (782-7420).

We are about building a "Community of Hope" here at Sacred Heart. Let's start with our young who need the hope of a vibrant, lived Faith. You can help provide that.

I have hope that you will respond: young - senior citizens and in between. Please call us today - 782-7420. Thank you.

God bless you!

Sr. Rose

Don't feel called to be a Catechist? Ask about our other support ministries.

African Community Mass

The Sacred Heart African community invites you to attend Mass with them on the first Sunday of the month at 2:00 pm. The liturgy is in English with cultural music. Mass intentions are available for these Masses. Due to the Labor Day weekend, the next monthly Mass will be on Sunday, September 11th.

Happiness without Religion?

When: Saturday, September 10
Time: 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm
Where: The Catholic Center at NYU
238 Thompson St
New York, NY 10012

Can we be happy without religion? On Saturday, September 10th at the Catholic Center at NYU, the Thomistic Institute and the University of Chicago's Virtue, Happiness, and the Meaning of Life Project will put on a discussion entitled "Happiness without Religion? A Philosophical Debate."

The event is free and open to the public. Registration, however, is required; pre-register online at www.thomisticinstitute.org for speedy check-in. Walk-ins are welcome, but must register at the door.

Saint of the Week

St. Joseph Calasanctius. Confessor August 27

Joseph Calasanctius was born at Petralta in Aragon. While he was still a child he used to call his companions together and teach them the mysteries of the faith and prayers. He became a priest because of a vow, and led a life of great austerity, chastising his body with vigils and fasting, and spending day and night in prayer and the contemplation of heavenly things.

When he had received from God the commission to devote himself to forming boys, especially poor boys, in the knowledge and love of God, he founded the Order of Poor Clerks Regular of the Mother of God of the Pious Schools, who took as their special work the task of teaching boys. Because of this work, he underwent innumerable labors and hardships with an invincible spirit, and in his ninety-second year he fell asleep in the Lord, on August 25, 1648.

Pius XII named him the heavenly patron before God of all Christian schools of general enrollment everywhere throughout the world.
