Pope Francis' Intention for June

National Leaders

That national leaders may firmly commit themselves to ending the arms trade, which victimizes so many innocent people.

Fund a Religious Education Student

Not every family in our parish is able to afford the registration fees which cover the expense of books and supplies. If you would like to "adopt" a child/family this year it would be most appreciated!!

Summer Sunshine Vacation Bible School

Registration for this year's Program "Maker Fun Factory - Created by God-Built for a Purpose" has begun. Forms may be picked up at the Religious Education Office or in the pamphlet rack in the rear of the Church. The program runs from July 17 - 21st from 9:30 - 12:30 at the school and parish grounds. It is open to children entering grades K - 5 in September 2017. Don't miss this faith-filled fun week for your children. Call Sr. Rose at 782-7420 for more information. Hurry as registration is limited.

We are in need of adult volunteers to lead groups. We especially need someone who can organize games and activities for outdoor play time.

Those of you who can't help during the week of Bible School may want to consider helping on the Saturday before (July 16) from 10:00 am – 3:00 pm. Adults, 7th and 8th graders are needed to help decorating for the program.

Summer Faith Enrichment for Adults

Our own Fr. Anthony will be offering 4 sessions entitled "Contemporary Moral Issues" for adults. The sessions will take place here in the Pastoral Center on June 28th, July 5th, July 19th & July 26th from 7:00 – 9:00 pm. Come - listen, discuss, pray & find the answers to so many of the moral dilemmas facing us as Catholic Christians today. Air conditioning & light refreshments will be provided. Registration would be helpful. Call 782-7420.

Catechists can obtain Level 2 credit but must attend all sessions

Religious Education

New & Re-registration have begun for the 2017 - 2018 school year.

Re-registration information and forms are online or can be picked up in the office.

Registrants new to the program must come into the office as we would like to meet you. You will need your child's Baptism Certificate unless he/she was baptized here at Sacred Heart. Information about our program and the schedule are on the parish website.

We look forward to having your children back for another year of Faith Formation.

God bless,

Sr. Rose
Director of Religious Education

An Opportunity

Would you like to provide a $5,000 scholarship to provide one year of Catholic Education for a child at Sacred Heart School? A partial scholarship of any amount is of course most welcome as well to help defray the unavoidable costs of providing a daily Catholic Education for the future of our Church. Please see Fr. Tom or Mrs. Muenkel, the principal of Sacred Heart School. Thank you!!

This Summer, Read Something Totally Different

The Scent of God by Beryl Bissel

I tend not to like memoirs: you can't trust them as history as it actually happened, but often as the author wished it had happened. However, novelist Ann Patchett personally recommended this book to me when it came out in 2006 and I've been grateful for the recommendation ever since. Without giving too much of the story away, suffice to say that Bissel tells a fascinating tale of life inside and out of a Carmelite convent, and later with the Blue Army (The World Apostolate of Fatima), and her family's dysfunctions and foibles, struggles and joys. A prestige first volume.

Saint of the Week

St. Paulinus
Bishop, Confessor
June 22

Paulinus, born in the year of salvation 353 of a very famous Roman family of Bordeaux, acquired the dignity of senator. He was made consul of Nola, but a divine light prompted him to renounce the consulship and return to Bordeaux, where he was baptized by St. Delphinus. Then, giving to the poor the large sum obtained by the sale of his goods, he went to Spain, where he was ordained priest. When he returned to Nola, he built a monastery near the grave of St. Felix and, with the companions who joined him, undertook a most austere monastic life.

As the fame of his holiness grew, he was elevated to the bishopric of Nola, in which office he left an example of wonderful devotion, patience, and especially charity. He wrote many works on sacred doctrine and also gained a reputation for eloquence and poetry. When Campania was devastated by the Goths, he used all his goods to feed the poor and redeem captives. And later, when the Vandals infested the same region and he had nothing more to give, he gave himself into slavery for the son of a widow, and was taken to Africa. At length, restored to liberty by the hand of God, he died a peaceful death in the Lord at Nola.

"And since all this loveliness
cannot be Heaven,
I know in my heart it is June."
Abba Woolson
