Tom or Mrs. Muenkel, the principal of Sacred Heart School. Thank you!

Hospice Volunteer Training Spring 2018

The primary role of our volunteer is to provide companionship and or caregiver relief to persons on Hospice and their families. Volunteers share skills and interests in a manner that provide comfort and enrich the quality of life for those served. Volunteers provide companionship through presence, listening to music, reading and reminiscing, etc. We offer various areas of volunteering within our organization, one of which is office support in both Newburgh and Middletown. Once the prospective volunteer has graduated the training, they can provide support in the geographic location in which they reside. Training will take place at Hospice of Orange and Sullivan Counties, Inc. at 90 Crystal Run Road, Middletown on Wednesdays at 10:00 am - 5:00 pm from April 11 through May 23. If you are interested in volunteering, contact the Director of Volunteer Services, Debra Epstein at 845-565-4849 or debae@hospiceoforange.com.

Prayer for Vocations

Jesus, high priest and Redeemer forever, we beg you to call young men and women to your service, as priests and religious. May they be inspired by the lives of dedicated priests, brothers and sisters. Give to parents the grace of generosity and trust toward you and their child so that their sons and daughters may be helped to choose their vocation in life with wisdom and freedom.

O God, you have called us to salvation and have sent your Son to establish the Church for this purpose, and you have provided the sacred ministers. The harvest is ever ready but the laborers are scarce. Inspire our youth to follow Jesus by serving Your People. Amen

Social Awareness Ministry (SAM)

Because of persecution and war at the hands of ISIS our Brothers and Sisters in the Middle East have been facing genocide. They were forced to either convert to Islam, pay the Jizya tax, or to leave their own homes. The Knights of Columbus Website details these facts about Persecuted Christians and the responses and actions that the Knights have taken. This was posted on their website, just recently in November 2017:

As Catholics and other Christians throughout the United States observe the Week of Awareness for Persecuted Christians co-sponsored by the U. S. Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Knights of Columbus, here are some facts on Christians in the Middle East and the Order's work in bringing aid to them.

For the first thousand years after Christ, Christianity was primarily a Middle Eastern religion. Until around AD 1000, there were more Christians in the Middle East than in Europe.

Christians living in the Middle East have survived severe persecution, most recently with ISIS' campaign of genocide.

From 1910 to 2010, the percentage of the population of the Middle East made up of Christians declined from 14 percent to 4 percent. This was prior to ISIS' genocide.

The number of Christians in Iraq has declined by as much as 90 percent over the last several years, from 1.5 million before 2003, to about 200,000 today. The number of Christians in Syria has declined by as much as 70 percent.

ISIS has executed thousands of Christians by barbaric methods, including crucifixion and beheading, and an ISIS affiliated group recently declared that Christians are their "favorite prey."

ISIS has engaged in mass deportations of Christians from their ancestral homelands.

In 2015, Christians were targeted in more countries (128) than any other religious group according to a 2017 Pew Research Center study.

Both Iraq and Syria ranked in the top ten countries for extent and degree of persecution of Christians according to the 2017 World Watch List published by Open Doors USA.

Christian women have been kidnapped and sold into sexual slavery.

Mass graves of Christians have been documented in Syria by Aid to the Church in Need.

Despite their own plight, Christians in the region regularly help non-Christians in need, including Yazidis and Shabak.

Knights of Columbus Support for Persecuted Christians in the Middle East

Since 2014, the Knights of Columbus Christian Refugee Relief Fund has committed more than $17 million to aid persecuted Christians in Iraq, Syria and the surrounding region.

In 2016, the Knights of Columbus led a major advocacy and publicity campaign in support of the U.S.

congressional and state department declarations of genocide, producing a nearly-300-page report on ISIS' genocide against Christians and gathering 140,000 signatures for a petition calling for the declaration of the genocide.

The Knights of Columbus has also advocated for U.S. government relief funds to be directed to those communities targeted for genocide by ISIS.

Among the projects to which K of C funding has been committed are:

Resettlement of the town of Karamles in Nineveh (Iraq)

General relief in Syria

New housing units in Iraq

Assistance for Christians targeted by ISIS in Egypt

Assistance for Christian refugee programs in Lebanon and Jordan

Food programs in Iraq

Rental assistance for displaced Christians in Iraq

Support for catechetical and educational programs for displaced families

K of C support for persecuted religious minorities in the Middle East is consistent with the Order's tradition of standing for religious liberty and diversity since its founding more than a century ago.

The K of C was a vocal opponent of the Ku Klux Klan's bigotry and led an international effort on behalf of Catholics being persecuted in Mexico in the 1920s.

Learn more about the Knights of Columbus' efforts to help genocide victims by visiting ChristiansAtRisk.org. Per the Christians at Risk website, 100 percent of donations go towards benefiting Persecuted Christians. You can also visit the website <http://www.kofc.org/en/charities/christian-relief/index.html> for more information.

Supreme Knight Carl Anderson was quoted on the website saying: "What we in the West can learn from them," he said, "is that a community under those circumstances is still able to demonstrate spiritual and moral courage ... to persist in their beliefs and conscience."

Matthew 5:10-12: Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you [falsely] because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. Thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

We should be thankful to God that we are blessed to have the right to practice our faith, go to Mass, and receive Our Lord Jesus in the Holy Eucharist without having the fear of facing what the people in the Middle East have been facing. Let us pray that their hearts may be strengthened by the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ, especially during this Easter Season.

God Bless you and your families, my brothers and sisters in Christ.

Sincerely,

Frankie DiPeri

"There's some good in this world Mr. Frodo, and It's worth fighting for." SAM
